

AAFS Connect has Forensic Science Content with a collection of on-demand free webinars and recordings in their Standards Video tab located at:

<https://www.aafs.org/standards-resources-training>

Several of these involved ADID members.

The following are some topics likely of interest to those viewing the ADID webpage:

A Training on ASTM E2329-17: Standard Practice for Identification of Seized Drugs

Analysis of Clandestine Drug Laboratory Evidence

An Introduction to ANSI/ASB Standards 119, 120, and 121: Defining the Analytical Scope and Sensitivity for Human Performance and Postmortem Forensic Toxicology

The Seven Habits for Highly Effective Standards Development

ANSI/ASB Standard 036: Std Practices for Method Validation

ANSI/ASB Standard 054: Standard for a Quality Control Program (in Forensic Toxicology Laboratories)

Standards Development Activities in Medicolegal Death

Standards Development Activities in Forensic Medicine

Standards Development Activities in Forensic Toxicology

Standards Development Activities in Seized Drugs

Standards Development Activities Legal Impacts

Standard Guide for Sampling Seized Drugs for Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis

Standard Practices for Measurement Traceability in Tox